Cup 21 g. 29 (57)

A Warning to LONDON:

A Full and True

ACCOUNT

OF A

LETTER,

Sent laſt Night to the Reverend Mr. Dodſon, Curate of St. Magnes Church, near London-Bridge; Diſcovering a moſt horrid Conſpiracy for ſetting Fire to London-Bridge, and Parts Adjacent, where the dreadful Fire of London began; Likewiſe the Watch being Doubled laſt Night, with a Reward for the Diſcovery of the ſame.

---

LONDON:

Printed by J. Dutton in White-Fryers. 1713.

VIII.

Therefore let us mind
What they talk for a Blind,
But be arm'd againſt them and their Evils;
For the ſanctify'd Race
Have a Snake in the Graſs, [Devils.
When they fright us with Popes and with

IX.

Remember Saint Oates,
And their Shaftsbury Plots,
Which were charg'd upon Rome by the Pious,
When the Proteſtant Breed
Had with Rumbold agreed,
To Aſſaſſinate Charles at the Rye-Houſe.

X.

Then who would give Ear,
When we've nothing to fear
But themſelves, to the Shams they've Pro-
When their Aim is to down [jected,
With the Church and the Crown,
Whilſt our Eyes the wrong way is directed.

XI.

Then let's be too wiſe
To be gull'd by their Lyes,
Since we find 'tis the Way of the Righteous,
To poſſeſs us with fear,
That the Lyon is near, [bite us.
When themſelves are the Dogs that would

---

LONDON:
Printed by J. Read near Fleet-ſtreet. 1713.